

Brentwood Primary School Parents & Citizens Membership Form

Joining the P&C is a wonderful opportunity for parents to be involved in shaping the school community and support the school to provide a positive school environment. The main role of the P&C Association is to: Give parents an opportunity to learn about school policies and programs. Involve parents in shaping the school community. Provide a voice for parents and students by maintaining positive relationships between the P&C and school administration.

The P&C meet twice a term usually in week 2 and 7 on a Tuesday evening 7pm either via zoom or in the school staff room.

To become a member please complete the form below:
